MRS. STANLEY REED

Chairman For Ninth District Reform School for Girls Fund.

As chairman of the Ninth District of the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs, Mrs. Stanley Reed has charge of raising in her district $1,000 for the Reform School for Girls, which is to be built at State and Federal cost, the Federal Government duplicating dollar for dollar, the sum raised by the state.

Louisville assumed the raising of $20,000 and the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs has undertaken to raise $10,000 in the other ten Congressional Districts.

Mrs. Reed has entered upon the work with an earnestness that will insure that the Ninth District will raise its quota long before the time limit is reached. Already Mrs. Reed has written to every club precinct in her district and has apportioned to each county the amount it is expected to raise.

The three federated clubs in Mason county, the Mason County Woman's Club, the Mason County Woman Suffrage League and the Washington Study Club are asked to raise in the county $300. Workers in these three clubs will solicit contributions not from club members only but from any woman or man in the county who wishes to maintain the highest efficiency in our army in order that we may win the war, and who wishes to embrace the unusual opportunity for securing with Federal aid to the extent to one half the cost an institution that the state has long needed.

In contributions from $1 to $500 Louisville passed the $10,000 mark on Saturday and expects to have her $20,000 in hand by Wednesday. To insure getting the Federal appropriation the entire $30,000 must be raised by July 10.

These are busy days. Our women are already full of work. Save their time and strength by making voluntary contributions. Send to Mrs. Reed or leave your contribution at any of the banks.

If you give your check, make it payable to Mrs. H. G. Reynolds, Treasurer Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs and mail it to Mrs. Reed.

AUSTRIAN DRIVE CHECKED

Italians, British and French Not Only Check Austrian Offensive, But Are Aggressors at Many Points—Austrians Driven Back Across Piave River.

Rome, June 17.—Not only are the Italians and their British and French comrades in arms holding in check the Austrian offensive along the greater part of the hundred mile battle front from the region southwest of Trent to the Adriatic sea, but they themselves have turned aggressors on some of the more important sectors, especially in the mountain regions.

Counter attacks in the hill country on the north at several points have resulted in the occupation by the Allies of ground won from them in the initial onslaught and the rectification of their lines, while a stiffening of the front along the Piave river has made impossible, for the time being at least, further fording of the stream by the enemy.

Hard fighting still is in progress, however, with the Austrians bringing the strongest kind of pressure to bear against the Allied armies on both northern and southern parts of the battlefield in an endeavor to reach the lines and gain access in force to the plains.

The strokes of the enemy are particularly violent on the Montello plateau, the highest bit of ground along the middle reaches of the Piave, the capture of which would give him command of the roads leading through Treviso to Venice and a fair way westward through the province of Treviso. The Italians are inflicting heavy casualties on the troops of Emperor Charles which crossed the river at this point.

To the south from St. Andrew to Fossalata, respectively the northern and southern flanks of the famous Zenson loop where last year the Austrians effected a crossing of the Piave, only later to be driven back with sanguinary losses, and from Fossalata to San Dona Di Piave the fighting is also of a violent character with the Italians heroically and successfully, according to the Rome war office, holding the line of the river.

Between Ceneda and the Zenson loop where the Austrians crossed the Piave in Saturday's fighting, the Italians have driven them back to the river bank and are endeavoring to push them across the stream. The latest Austrian official communication records the gain of additional ground west of San Dona Di Piave and the capture of the Village of Cape Sile, on the eastern edge of the Isonzo region in the province of Venetia and about 20 miles from Venice itself.

Thus far the Italians, British and French troops have made prisoners of more than 4500 Austrians while the Austrians war office asserts that 12,000 prisoners have been taken by the Austrians.

Although the fighting has died down considerably in the mountain region, it is expected soon again to be resumed with increased violence. Emperor Charles is reported to be at the front and thousands of reinforcements for the armies are said to be moving southward. The Allied commanders are expecting vicious fighting, believing that owing to the turmoil and political unrest in the dual monarchy, the Austrians must make a good showing in order to temper the feeling against the war at home.

There still has been no return to the heavy fighting of last week on the battle fronts in France.

Italians Begin Counter Drive
Rome, June 17.—Italian troops in conjunction with their French and British Allies yesterday, began a counter offensive against the Austro-Hungarian forces which had launched an attack on the Italian mountain front. The Italian and Allied troops, according to an announcement made today by the War Office, were able to gain partial successes and to rectify their lines at several points along the front.

GREAT INTEREST

Is Being Created Throughout the Three Counties By the Old Settlers Celebration at Ruggles Fourth of July.

The plans made and announced for the celebration of the Fourth of July by the Old Settlers at Ruggles Campgrounds are creating the greatest interest, especially throughout the section of three counties which attend these annual gatherings. The fact that the Hon. Edwin P. Morrow is to be orator of the day will draw thousands to hear him. Mr. Morrow is one of the busiest and most sought for men in the state and the Old Settlers are exceedingly fortunate in securing him for such a big day as the Fourth of July. While the Chautauqua will be in full force here and the most of our people in attendance, yet there are a whole big lot of folks that just like to get away from town, out in the big woods, where people come for miles, where not only the old settlers meet but the young also. There will be a good band to enthrall the folks. The Germantown band will be on the job early and is prepared for all sorts of demands for music. Word that the Hon. John F. Coldiron, prominent Ashland attorney, is to be present for as speech. No more popular man ever held the office of commonwealth attorney than Mr. Coldiron. He, too, will be a big drawing card. When making plans for the Fourth don't forget the Old Settlers reunion at Ruggles Campgrounds.

THOUSANDS OF THEM

There are forty-six States (full fledged) and in every State there are several colleges and universities. From them are coming this year a vast number of graduates, young men and women. They have been in school from 16 to 19 years. All this they leave behind and march out to battle or to desert. Their future is to be established.

There are three classes, those who have plenty of money, those who have positions awaiting them and those who have neither money nor position.

The vast majority belong to the third class. They must fight and fight hard for a chance to exist honestly.

A liberal education is a priceless heritage. It is something to be desired. "It broadens the horizon, opens new worlds of thought, sharpens the appetite for finer things." We would urge every boy and girl in the land to get such an education if possible.

We are not unmindful that a "stomach" demands food. Unsatisfied hunger is not inspiring. A taste for things you cannot have is dreadfully uncomfortable. But our observation has been that the young man who buckles down to honest hard work can soon have almost anything he wants.

To the thousands who are coming from the colleges we would say be honest, be ambitious and shirk not the responsibilities that must come your way. Despire not little things. If you can't ride in the band wagon with the elite, ride with the common folks, and if necessary walk. Be up and doing and you will not be a zero.

GOING BAREFOOT

There are good parents who allowed their little boys to go barefoot, but that was long ago. What old boy of today does not remember the time when the hot days came, that he was permitted, if not encouraged, to go barefoot? It was the luxury of youth to go barefoot in these days, and it would be today if we had not in some degree degenerated. Now is the time to read Whittier's "Barefoot Boy."

Blessings on thee, little man,
Barefoot boy with cheek of tan;
With thy turned-up pantaloons
And thy merry whistled tunes.

Then it was that a boy was a real boy as close to nature as a bed of violets, and as glorious to look upon. Whittier goes on:

Cheerily, then, my little man,
Live and laugh as boyhood can!
Though the flinty slopes be hard,
Stubble-spared the new-mown sod,
Every morn shall lead thee through Fresh baptisms of the dew.

Get the poem and read it through, for it is a true and beautiful as the gospel of St. John.

We have a boy and we think he ought to go barefoot occasionally but then we are not the whole works at our house.

MUST LEARN ENGLISH

Perhaps after reading of the action taken by many school authorities in the United States, the Kaiser may conclude that if he wants to maintain a place in world trade after the war he will have to make English a required study in all German schools.

WAR FINANCE CORPORATION FIRST LOAN

The War Finance Corporation on April 25 approved its first loan. It is for $1,000,000, bears interest at 6 per cent per annum, and will run for two years. It was made through two large banking institutions of the Pacific coast to the Northwestern Electric Co., and is made on the notes of the bank secured by first mortgage bonds of the company, and other collateral.

The money is to be used to make extensions and enlargements so that additional electric power may be generated and used in connection with shipbuilding.

WHAT THE BULL ASSOCIATION CAN DO

Fortunate is that dairyman whose carefully selected herd has a good bull at its head. A good bull gets productive daughters. Such daughters greatly excel their dams. The dams may be selected scrubs, the daughters become productive grades, and the granddaughters high grades of very large production. That is intelligent, constructive breeding, and it is what takes place in every well-managed cooperative bull association. The bull association combines low investment, light maintenance, and large returns. —U. S. Department of Agriculture.

IN KENTUCKY

Money In Their Phizzes

A Fordsville lady devised a clever scheme for raising Red Cross contributions. Buck Allen and Clem Moxley, neither of whom is better looking than the editor of this paper, had been snap-shotted together by a photographer. The lady prepared a box with a coin slot and advertised to show the picture for a jitney. The patronage was liberal, and the price of several bandages was raised by the novel scheme. Moxley is a widower, and this advertisement may be the means of his getting married.—Hartford Republican.

Germans Around?

James W. Peck, residing about seven miles north of town, who was making axe handles in a tent in the woods, suffered the misfortune of losing his tent and its contents by fire Saturday night. His bed, bed clothing, tools and some axe handle timber which were in the tent were destroyed by fire. The tent was willfully and maliciously burned by an enemy, it is thought.—Elizabeth Mirror.

Generous Man

One of the Red Cross workers of the county, who was in town Saturday reporting progress to headquarters, brought the information that one of the men in their district, when approached by the Red Cross Committee, gave the magnificent sum of 5 cents—one jitney—for the relief of our boys in France. The man who set himself up this peculiar monument is worth several thousand dollars and is recognized as a prosperous citizen.

Such whole-souled, open-hearted generosity should not go unrewarded, or, we should say, unpunished.—Maysfield Times.

Don't Do It Again

While Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Nave were on their way to town Wednesday he espied a four-foot snake in the middle of the pike on the McPartridge hill. Mr. Nave thought he would end the existence of his snake by driving the buggy over it. The wheels passed over the reptile all right, but in its contortions it landed partly in the buggy, head first, frightening the couple very much. Mr. Nave says he won't do it any more. It was a cowsucker. —Harrsdsburg Herald.

Remarkable Record

A remarkable record indeed is that of Miss Pear Douglas Cook, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook, who was one of the eighth grade graduates of the Guthrie School this year. During her eight years as a pupil, Miss Cook has not missed attending a day nor has she been tardy a single time. In addition to this, she has won several scholarship records. —Todd County Times.

THE BEST INVESTMENT IN THE WORLD

From whatever angle it may be considered, an investment by an American citizen in Liberty Bonds or War Savings Stamps is the best investment in the world.

The money so invested goes to the Government, which loans some of it to our allies; all of it is used in one way or another to maintain, support, arm, equip, and make victories our armies and our allies in Europe. Surely no American money could be put to a better purpose. Here is an investment in the power and success of our country, an investment in the efficiency, strength, safety, and success of our fighting men on sea and land.

USE OF WOMEN ON FARMS

As to the use of women on the farms, the department recognizes that they can be of great value in certain minor tasks, but the department believes that if men of farm experience in the towns and cities can be released by the substitution of woman labor temporarily, the needs of farmers will be supplied and there will be little demand for woman labor on the farm except for the lighter tasks. MAYSVILLE SYSTEM OF TRANSPORTATION LAUDED IN "AMERICAN CITY" MAGAZINE

The "American City", an illustrated review of municipal improvements recently wrote a letter to Secretary Carl Dods of the Chamber of Commerce, asking permission to publish an article on how Maysville has solved her transportation problems in distributing merchandise and carrying passengers to their destination, off from a railroad line.

This city has an especially systematic and efficient way of dealing with the different bus and trunk vehicles, plying from here to various parts of the adjoining counties, having arranged cards, giving the different time the trucks arrive and leave and arranging for the Chamber of Commerce to be the meeting place and where the merchants may leave their packages for patrons through the county.

DR. HENRY A. ADRIAN.

To those who had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Henry A. Adrian when he made a tour of the Coit-Alber Chautauques four years ago, the announcement that he is to return this year will give pleasure. If Dr. Adrian were lecturing upon an ordinary subject, he would still be one of the most interesting lecturers on the American platform, but when he comes to the Chautauqua to talk on a subject of such paramount importance at the present time as the subject on which he is announced to speak, "New Ways of Feeding the World," his lecture becomes an event.

Dr. Adrian is a close personal friend of Luther Burbank, the plant wizard. His home is at Santa Barbara, Cal., and he keeps in constant touch with Mr. Burbank, and with the new de-

He served two years in the House of velopment in the science of plant life which are being brought to life by Mr. Burbank. For many years there has been an effort on the part of Chautauqua and Lyceum managers to secure Mr. Burbank for lecture time, but he absolutely refuses to be tempted into devoting a portion of his time to the platform. Realizing, however, that there was a great interest in the work which he is doing, and that the new crisis in the world, due to a shortage of food, has made doubly insistent the demand for further knowledge regarding his work, Mr. Burbank kindly consented to permit Dr. Adrian to present his work upon the platform.

CHARTS THE GERMAN MIND.

Dr. Frank Bohn's Lecture Points Out Things to Follow Great War.

Dr. Frank Bohn, one of the lecturers to appear at the Chautauqua, has been entrusted with important diplomatic missions by the United States Government. The exact nature of these missions cannot at this time be divulged, but Mr. Bohn is expected to return from the latest of these confidential journeys in time to take up his Chautauqua work.

He was educated through long association. He believes that a German Democracy is entirely possible, and in his Chautauqua lecture, which he calls "After the War, What?" he will endeavor to chart the German mind, and to point out essential activities leading toward the demilitarization of Germany.

CONTROL WATERMELON DISEASES BY SPRAYING

Washington—Thorough application of Bordeaux mixture will prevent the spread of anthracnose, downy mildew, and a new disease of watermelons known as Mycosphaerella blight, according to specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. The control of these diseases means an increased yield and a better quality of fruit.

Great care should be taken to follow directions in making the mixture. Use the correct amount of bluestone and lime, as a variation may ruin the vines. Be certain that the lime has not air slaked. Directions of making Bordeaux mixture may be found in the United States Department of Agriculture's Farmers' Bulletin 821, "Watermelon Diseases," free on request.

Apparatus and Method
Any spray pump, which will furnish a pressure of 140-200 pounds may be employed. A light gasoline power outfit is strongly recommended. In general the farmer will have to devise a method of application suitable to the outfit available. Where rows are planted ten feet apart, it has been found convenient, by using two 25-foot lengths of hose with six-foot extensions, to spray three rows of vines on each side of the machine. A valve cut-off should be provided at the hose end of the extension rod. The nozzle should throw a finely divided mist, and be set at an angle to the rod, in order to facilitate covering the under surface of the leaves. If the pump will support a pressure of 140 pounds when four nozzles are in use, a "Y" connection and two nozzles for each extension afford an effective means of applying the spray.

Experience has shown that the field roads used at harvest time may be advantageously kept open during the growing season for passage of the spray machine. Boys may be employed to support the hose and prevent dragging of the vines. Rough treatment will knock off blossoms and small fruit, thereby reducing the yield.

Dates and Number of Applications
As the occurrence of the diseases is largely dependent on time and amount of rainfall, it is difficult to recommend a set schedule for spraying melons. For average conditions, three applications are suggested. Spray for the first time when the plants have been out of the ground about two weeks. A hand pump of the knapsack type is most convenient for this application. The second spraying may be given when the plants have developed a good system of runners. The third spraying should be given about two weeks before maturity. If rainfall is heavy and disease prevalent, an additional spray should be given seven to ten days later.

Such a schedule merely suggests a set of applications that might be effective in an average season. In case dry weather prevails during the growing season, the second application may be delayed until two weeks before maturity. If rains are frequent at this time, make another application in about seven to ten days. Instances have been known where spraying would have paid even though the growing season was well under way. Heavy rains and continued moist weather at any time during the season should be the signal for the application of Bordeaux mixture. If possible, the application should be made a sufficient length of time before a rain to allow the mixture to dry thoroughly on the leaves. The best time to spray is in the morning on a bright, sunny day.

Carless Work Useless
Owing to the method of doing the work, much spraying done on the farm accomplishes little more than a waste of time and material. Half-way measures are useless in spray work. As a rule the work is left to ignorant laborers who proceed with the object of covering as large an acreage as possible in a limited amount of time. A portion of each plant may be sprinkled under these circumstances, but this is not sufficient. Spraying that will control fungous diseases means more than that. The spray solution acts only as a preventive, and the ideal application is one in which every leaf of the plant is covered, top and bottom, with a finely divided mist. Unless this is done, disease may get a foothold in the field, and the possibility of control will be doubtful.

Spraying Cost Compared to Return
In a spraying demonstration on a 24-acre field in Georgia in 1917, the total cost for each application was found to be 94 cents an acre. Yield records kept in connection with a spraying experiment in the same locality in 1917 showed that the difference in returns from a thoroughly sprayed plot and a near-by unsprayed plot amounted to $19.50 an acre. After deducting the cost of three applications, $2.82, the profit derived from spraying in this instance amounted to $16.68 an acre.

SEAMEN'S INSURANCE

More than 69,000 masters, officers, and seamen on American merchant vessels traversing the war zones have been insured by the United States Government. This insurance totals more than $115,000,000. Claims under the insurance are so far a little more than $180,000.

This insurance as to vessels traversing the war zone is compulsory, though it is not required that the insurance be taken through the Bureau of War-Risk Insurance. However, virtually the entire personnel of the merchant marine is insured by the bureau, the Government rate being only 25 cents for each $100 of insurance.

Since the American fleet has been patrolling the seas the rate has been reduced from 50 cents for each $100 of insurance.

If the owner of a vessel traversing the war zone fails to insure the masters, officers, and crew, the Secretary of the Treasury may take out the insurance for them with the bureau and, further, fine the owner not more than $1,000.

The insurance affords protection for disability or death resulting from war perils and provides for compensation during detention following capture. One American captain's wife has been receiving a monthly check for $337.50 since her husband was captured by the Germans.

A man may now enlist in the merchant-marine service with full assurance that in case of death, disability, or detention in prison his dependents and loved ones will be provided for.

CITIES MUST HELP FARMERS

In any American city it may come to pass that men who know how to chop wood or pick cotton or harvest wheat will have to close their offices and stores during the periods of seasonal strain and come out and help the farmers. All the other countries at war have done that and we must do it if the need appears.

FARM LOANS A FAILURE?

(Leslie's)

With the nation borrowing and spending billions of dollars and the people paying war taxes without complaint, the most scrupulous care should be exercised in every dollar spent. We fear with Representative Fordney, of Michigan, that the operations of the Federal Farm Loan Board will not stand the highest test. Mr. Fordney declares that the board has squandered the people's money, that farmers have been able to borrow from the Government who could not borrow from banks that knew them and knew the value of their property.

Mr. Fordney points out how the board borrowed on its bonds at 4½ per cent, and invested the money in liberty bonds at 3½ per cent, the idea being to get into business at any cost. The record of the board need occasion no surprise when it is known that not a single member of it had experience in large-scale banking, business or financial affairs. The act creating the board specified that none of the officials having charge of the lending and bonding operations could be identified with any other mortgaging or banking system or institution.

There can be no doubt that many loans have been made in good faith and on good security.

A PACIFIST

(Manufacturers' Record)

The pacifist is either an imbecile who should be in an asylum for the feeble-minded or he is a rotten-hearted coward.

If the pacifist claims to be a Christian and a lover of peace on that basis he is false to the religion of Christ.

If the pacifist is a man, he is a disgrace to manhood, for he will not defend womanhood.

If the pacifist be a woman she is a disgrace to womanhood, for she cares not for the agony of other women made to endure sufferings worse than those of Dante's Inferno.

Dante found a hell beneath all other hells reserved for those who are neutral in the great fight between good and evil. That is the place for all so-called pacifists, for they are co-partners in Germany's crime against civilization and co-partners in sentiment, if not in act, with all the brutal lusts of the accursed fiends who outrage under the banner of Germany, a manner which was made in hell, for Germany and hell are synonymous terms.

In the matter of chin a daughter generally resembles her mother rather than her father.

THREE GENERATIONS OF WOMEN

For three generations women of this country have used and recommended to their children and children's children the use of that famous old root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, until today it is recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs; is made from roots and herbs of the field under the most sanitary condition, and any woman suffering from such ailments should be sure to give it a trial.

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Many Maysville People in Poor Health
Without Knowing the Cause.

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that may be the root of the trouble.
Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills—endorsed by people all over the country and by your neighbors in Maysville.
Mrs. W. A. Schatzmann, 605 East Second Street, says: "From the benefit I have received from Doan's Kidney Pills, which I buy at Chansler's Drug Store, I have every reason to recommend them. Whenever my kidneys have been irregular in action or I have suffered from weakness and lameless in the small of my back, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills. They have always proven sufficient to quickly cure and attack."
Mrs. Schatzmann is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS. The fact that Mrs. Schatzmann uses the remedy backed by home testimony,
